

RJ Summerlin Area View

An edition of the Las Vegas Review-Journal • Serving Summerlin, Spring Valley, Sun City, Desert Shores, The Lakes and Pocolite Ranch

reviewjournal.com • viewnews.com • Volume 23, Number 33

Zone G

Page 8AA | Crime Map

Page 4AA | Health

Page 17AA | Community Calendar

Thursday, Aug. 14, 2014

A LA CARTE

MTO CAFE TO OPEN IN DOWNTOWN SUMMERLIN

MTO Cafe, 500 S. Main St., plans to open its second valley location in Downtown Summerlin this fall.

The new restaurant will be 2,500 square feet with four distinct dining areas, including a dining room, counter, community table and 800-square-foot patio. It is planned to be open daily for breakfast, lunch and dinner.

For more information, visit mtocafe.com.

THE GRAMERCY TO OFFER DINING OPTIONS

The Gramercy, 9205-9275 W. Russell Road, which is scheduled to open in phases this fall, is set to offer anchor-space tenants including Alex Stratta, a former Wynn chef offering a new culinary approach on the Italian steakhouse. The 5,300 square-foot restaurant will have a Strip view.

► SEE A LA CARTE PAGE 17AA

A LA CARTE

CONTINUED FROM PAGE 16AA

DW Bistro plans to open its second valley location in the lifestyle village, along with a new market concept, DW Market. It will be 8,000 square feet with a courtyard patio. Among the offerings will be grab-and-go meals, a walk-up counter with hot dishes prepared in an open kitchen, a fresh bakery area and a floral boutique.

Holley Steeley, owner of Holley's Cuppa, plans to open her second location, The Cuppa, next to DW Market.

For more information about The Gramercy, visit thegramercy.com.